Nurse Administration: This questionnaire is related to the way in which you administer medicines using the Electronic Prescribing and Administration System.

When administering oral medication....

Q.1. How often do you take a computer to the bedside?

Answer choices:

Never
Rarely (1 in 4)
Occasionally (2 in 4)
Most of the time (3 in 4)
Always

Q.2. If you don't always take a computer to the bedside please tell us why

Open comment box available

Q.3. Check the patients ID with the record on the screen at the bedside

Answer choices:

Never
Rarely (1 in 4)
Occasionally (2 in 4)
Most of the time (3 in 4)
Always

Q.4. If you don't always check the patients ID with the record on the screen at the bedside please tell us why

Open comment box available
When administering IV medication.....

Q.5. How often do you take a computer to the bedside?

Answer choices:

Never
Rarely (1 in 4)
Occasionally (2 in 4)
Most of the time (3 in 4)
Always

Q.6. If you don't always take a computer to the bedside please tell us why

Open comment box available

Q.7. Check the patients ID with the record on the screen at the bedside

Answer choices:

Never
Rarely (1 in 4)
Occasionally (2 in 4)
Most of the time (3 in 4)
Always

Q.8. If you don't always check the patients ID with the record on the screen at the bedside please tell us why

Open comment box available

Q.9. Does your ward identify patients with similar names?

Answer choices:

Yes
No

Q.10. If yes, how is this done?

Open comment box available

Q.11. Do you have any suggestions on how to improve this, to reduce the risk of wrong patient errors?

Open comment box available